CAPE TOWN

SOUTH AFRICA

Sheltered by Table Mountain, South Africa's Mother City is one of the world's most beautiful cities. Centuries-old Cape Dutch houses and colorful gardens dot the cityscape. A bustling waterfront welcomes visitors with inviting cafés and boutiques set amid workaday harbor life. To the south, the Atlantic seaboard gives way to a scenic coastline with dramatic views.

ROBBEN ISLAND

SOUTH AFRICA

Within sight of Cape Town, but effectively a world away, Robben Island was home to a prison that held Nelson Mandela and other political dissidents. Despite poor conditions, prisoners organized debates and educational and sporting activities. From their remote prison, these prisoners helped draw attention to the injustices of apartheid. Today, former prisoners lead insightful tours of the prison.

From Prisoner to President

"What counts in life is not the mere fact that we have lived. It is what difference we have made to the lives of others that will determine the significance of the life we lead." ~ Nelson Mandela

Activist. Freedom fighter. Prisoner. President. Nelson Mandela, who died in 2013 at the age of 95, was this and more to millions of people around the world. Jailed for 27 years during South Africa's apartheid era, Mandela emerged from imprisonment in 1990 as the government began dismantling the apartheid machine. Four years later, Mandela was elected the first president of a new, democratic South Africa. The story of his incredible journey was introduced to a new generation of admirers in late 2013, when the man whom millions called "Tata," father in his native isiXhosa language, died.

CAPE PENINSULA

SOUTH AFRICA

In 1580, Sir Frances Drake, the great English navigator, described the Cape of Good Hope as the "fairest cape ... in the whole circumference of the earth." Blessed with a dramatic beauty, the peninsula is a part of the Cape Floral Region, which is considered to have the most diverse range of plant life in the world. Visitors are likely to see plenty of wildlife, especially chacma baboons. At Cape Point, ascend one of the world's highest sea cliffs by funicular to admire stunning panoramic coastal views.

JOHANNESBURG

SOUTH AFRICA

If tranquil Cape Town is the country's oldest and most genteel city, Johannesburg is its rambunctious little brother.

In 1886, the discovery of a huge lode of gold triggered a gold rush. Today, Joburg is the country's financial center, and many people come here to enjoy the fast-paced lifestyle.

SOWETO

SOUTH AFRICA

Soweto, an abbreviation for South Western Townships, is no longer just a collection of shantytowns built to house black mine workers away from the center of Johannesburg. It is a thriving community proud of its role in ending the oppression of apartheid, and it produced two Nobel Peace Prize laureates: Nelson Mandela and Desmond Tutu.

Squatter camps still exist, but these camps slowly are disappearing as more affordable housing is built. With a brave spirit, the residents of Soweto are embracing both new opportunities and challenges presented to them.

VICTORIA FALLS

ZIMBABWE

Until the 19th century, the Zambezi River's great cascade was called Mosi-oa-Tunya, "the smoke that thunders," by the region's Kololo tribe. "Discovered" on November 16, 1855, by Dr. David Livingstone and renamed for England's queen, Victoria Falls is the planet's largest curtain of water—spanning more than a mile—as it crashes some 328 feet into the raging Batoka Gorge below. Twice the height of Niagara Falls, mighty Victoria Falls casts a veil of spray that at times can be seen up to 50 miles away!

The Safari Experience

In the not-so-distant past, a safari was synonymous with hunters stalking herds of big game that roamed the African plains. Today, most hunters are armed with cameras instead of guns. Their trophies? Images of Africa's incomparable wildlife.

Each day unfolds with discoveries of nature's grandeur on the wild continent. Awaken to the aroma of freshly brewed coffee as your expert driver prepares his vehicle for your early morning game drive. Set off in pursuit of exotic animals and birds in their natural habitat and see the drama of their day-to-day struggle for survival.

Return to the lodge for a hearty English breakfast and share your morning encounters with fellow travelers. After lunch, there is time to take a dip in the pool or treat yourself to a massage at the spa. Tea is served before your afternoon game drive.

As the sun completes its sojourn across the sky, return to the lodge for a relaxing evening. After a dinner of delicious international and local cuisine, gather around the fireplace to trade tales and tally your Big Five sightings. By day's end, you'll have collected many photographs and thrilling memories of your very own safari.

Thornybush

GAME RESERVE

If you've ever imagined seeing a pride of lions lazing in the sun, a lone cheetah scouting for prey or a herd of impala gracefully bounding across grassland, then embarking on a safari at the private Thornybush Nature Reserve will be a dream come true. Located near world-renowned Kruger National Park, the reserve offers incredible wildlife encounters in the most game-rich area in the country. During each game drive, ride in an open-top Land Rover with stadium seating while knowledgeable and seasoned rangers and trackers share their knowledge of the flora and fauna. Scan the savannah for the famous Big Five and the many other animals that live here. Chances are you will also see many of the 507 bird species and the 114 reptile species that reside within Thornybush's 28,417 acres of lowveld.

The Big Five

The phrase, The Big Five, was coined in the 19th century by European big-game hunters. The term refers to the most dangerous animals to track on foot and which, therefore, are the most prized trophies. They are: the lion, elephant, black rhinoceros, Cape buffalo and leopard. These magnificent creatures are still the most desired shots to stalk while on safari, but nowadays with a zoom lens mounted on a digital camera!

ROVOS RAIL

The Pride of Africa

Discover the glamour and romance of the golden age of train travel, a bygone era, during a two-night rail journey from Cape Town to Pretoria aboard the luxurious Rovos Rail. The pride of Africa offers an unforgettable experience.

Ride in splendid vintage carriages, painstakingly restored to mint condition and impeccably appointed. The late Victorian and Edwardian décor includes handsome wood paneling and elegantly decorated suites. Spend your days in the observation car or mingle with your fellow travelers in the lounge. Enjoy attentive service and even a touch of formality at dinner, as passengers dress for the occasion. The fine cuisine showcases local ingredients and regional specialties, with all beverages included. Each morning, take in the scenic splendor of the passing landscapes during a sumptuous breakfast buffet and dishes cooked to order. Three-course lunches and dinners include a selection of excellent South African wines.

As you make your way through the arid Karoo, step back in time as you stop in Matjiesfontein, a charming Victorian town, and Kimberley, site of the world-famous diamond mine.

Comfortable, air-conditioned accommodations include your choice of a Pullman Suite with joined twin beds or a double bed that converts to a sofa, or a Deluxe Suite with a choice of twin or double beds and a lounge area. Each suite includes a minibar, a personal safe and a private bathroom with shower and hair dryer. Room service is available at any hour.

Upper: Rovos Rail suite | Lower: Dining car

Day One Your train leaves Cape Town for Pretoria. Leave behind the mountains and the verdant vineyards of the Western Cape as you make your way to the Karoo, the semidesert plateau that encompasses much of South Africa's interior. Early this evening, arrive at Matjiesfontein, a spa town founded in 1890 by Englishman James D. Logan, who re-created a bit of Victorian London in rural South Africa.

Day Two This morning, awake to the scenery of the Northern Cape province. Arrive in Kimberley in the afternoon and set out on a guided tour. The 1866 discovery of a diamond on a farm near Hopetown set off South Africa's great diamond rush. See the Big Hole, the former diamond mine that once was thought to be the largest hole excavated by hand.

Day Three Arrive late this morning in Pretoria. Transfer by deluxe motorcoach to Thornybush Game Reserve.
