

ARGENTINA:

Art, Wine, Tango & the Andes

November 6–15, 2015

DEAR COMMONWEALTH CLUB MEMBERS AND FRIENDS:

Join the Commonwealth Club Members on a journey of two of Argentina's most memorable sites: the vibrant metropolis of Buenos Aires and the provincial capital of Mendoza. Experience the cultural sophistication of Buenos Aires along with the exploration of Mendoza's wine-growing regions and wineries with their soaring mountains and spectacular landscapes.

Our journey begins with Buenos Aires, the "Paris of South America." Enjoy Buenos Aires' cosmopolitan pleasures by taking a tango lesson, attending a tango performance, and exploring the neighborhoods of Recoleta, La Boca and San Telmo. Beyond the city's limits venture out into the pampas to a historic estancia to enjoy an Argentinean-style barbecue. On this journey, you'll visit vineyards, see breathtaking snow-capped peaks, and stop for sumptuous meals.

We continue onto Mendoza, the center of Argentina's wine industry and one of the world's wine capitals. A cool canopy of trees shades the city's sidewalks and water runs along its streets via canals and then bursts from fountains in Mendoza's parks and squares. Outside the city, we'll travel to Valle de Uco, one of the highest wine-growing regions in the world and to Lujan de Cuyo, home to some of the most famous names in Argentinean wines. Here we'll enjoy special tastings and tours, learn firsthand about viticulture from vineyard owners, visit a local artist and participate in a cooking lesson of regional cuisine.

A pre-trip extension is offered to Iguazú Falls, one of the natural wonders of the world. You may also choose to explore the Swiss-like town of Bariloche surrounded by deep azure lakes, vast forests and the Andes Mountains on an optional post-trip extension.

Accompanying you on this tour will be Peter H. Smith, a prominent professor at the University of California, San Diego who has conducted in-depth analyses of political change in Argentina and other countries of Latin America.

Come join us on this exciting exploration of the arts, wine and culture of Argentina.

Sincerely,

Kristina Nemeth
Director of Travel
