Perspectives of Iran

May 7 – 21, 2015

Led by Stephen Kinzer

What to Expect

Participants must be in good health and able to keep up with an active group. In order to participate one should be able to walk 1-2 miles comfortably, use stairs without handrails, and be able to walk and stand for periods of two hours at time.

Fall is a lovely time to travel in Iran when temperatures range from 60-85 degrees Fahrenheit. The infrastructure in Iran is quite good with modern roads and buses. Hotels are comfortable with private bathrooms and air-conditioning. Food is freshly prepared and we eat at delightful local restaurants. During the program participants should be dressed modestly and women will be required to have their head covered while in public areas. More details will be provided upon registering for the trip.

U.S. to TEHRAN

Thursday, May 7

Depart the U.S.

TEHRAN

Friday, May 8

Upon arrival, transfer to the former Intercontinental Hotel, now the Laleh Hotel.

TEHRAN

Saturday, May 9

Enjoy a full day of sightseeing in Tehran concentrating on its excellent museums. Visit the Archaeological Museum with its fine collection including a stone capital of a winged lion from Susa. Explore the Glass and Ceramics Museum of Iran and the Contemporary Art Museum. B,L,D

TEHRAN

Sunday, May 10

Visit to the Reza Abbasi Museum which is home to a superior collection of Persian miniatures. View the Iranian crown jewels. This spectacular collection of jewels, stored in the basement vault of the Bank Milli Iran, contains the world's largest uncut diamond as well as the Peacock Throne. B,L,D

TEHRAN

Monday, May 11

Head to northern Tehran to visit Khomeini's home where one is allowed a glimpse of the dwelling. Enjoy lunch in a lively neighborhood, then stop at the Zahir ol Dowleh Cemetery, the resting spot for many of Iran's writers and artists. Close by is the garden home of Dr. Hesabi, a prominent Persian scientist. Enjoy tea here before returning to the hotel. B,L,D

TABRIZ

Tuesday, May 12

Fly to Tabriz, the capital of East Azerbaijan. Until recently Tabriz was the second largest city in Iran. Visit the Blue Mosque of Tabriz, considered a masterpiece of Iranian decorative tile work due to the quality of the work, the finesse of the designs, and the harmony of the overall composition. Continue on to the gardens of the Shah Goli (the Royal Lake), a popular site for summer picnicking and musical performances, and learn about qanats, a rather extraordinary system of irrigation, which can extend for miles. End the day at the fabulous bazaar of Tabriz which is known for its silverwork and jewelry. B,L,D

Wednesday, May 13

Today begins with an excursion to the Saint Stepanos Monastery. Dating back to the 7th century, this is part of a UNESCO World Heritage site. Situated on the south-eastern fringe of the main zone of the Armenian cultural space, the monastery once constituted a major center for the dissemination of Armenian culture in the region. This church, along with St. Thaddeus, are the last regional remains of this culture that are still in a state of integrity and authenticity. Return to Tabriz mid-afternoon. Dinner and overnight at the hotel. B,L,D

SHIRAZ

Thursday, May 14

In the morning, enjoy a short excursion to the intriguing troglodyte village of Kandovan. The Kandovan people have carved their houses in the rocks and still live in them as in ancient times. Return to Tabriz and connect with an afternoon flight to Shiraz. Upon arrival enjoy an orientation tour of this city known for its nightingales, poetry, and, at one time, wine. Transfer to the Homa Hotel for dinner and overnight. B,L,D

SHIRAZ

Friday, May 15

Today we enjoy a full day excursion to Persepolis, the ceremonial capital of the Achaemenian Empire and one of the world's most beautiful and spectacular archaeological sites. This palace city was built by craftsmen from around Darius' vast empire. Superb bas reliefs depict the flow of ritual processions. After a lunch sitting in the shade of grape vines, visit Naghsh-E Rostam which contains the carved tombs of four Achaemenian kings. B,L,D

YAZD

Saturday, May 16

This morning explore the city of Shiraz stopping at the tomb of the celebrated poet Hafez. The marble tombstone is engraved with a long verse from the poet's works. Continue on to the Fars Museum. This octagonal pavilion houses a collection relating to the life of Karim Khan. After lunch drive to Yazd passing through many acres of pistachios. Dinner and overnight at the Moshir Garden Hotel. B,L,D.

YAZD

Sunday, May 17

In Yazd stop at the home of the former governor of the city to see and learn more about traditional Persian architecture and the badgers, wind-towers ingeniously designed to catch a passing breeze. Enjoy a walking tour through the covered streets of the old quarter. Spend an afternoon concentrating on the Zoroastrian religion. Explore a small village called Taft where a large number of Zoroastrians still live. We also stop at one of the two Zoroastrian abandoned Towers of Silence where, until forty years ago, the dead were left at the tops of the towers. B,L,D

ISFAHAN

Monday, May 18

Drive this morning to Na'in, an important trade center. It is well-known for its carpet making and also for its mosque from the early Islamic period. Continue on to a private house that has some superb 17th century stucco carvings. After a wonderful lunch, drive to Isfahan. Upon arrival transfer to the delightful Abbasi Hotel, a converted caravanserai. B,L,D

ISFAHAN

Tuesday, May 19

Isfahan is perhaps the most beautiful of all Iranian cities. The central focus of this fascinating city, which never failed to inspire and awe European merchants and ambassadors to the Safavid court, is the immense Maydan-e Shah, or Royal Square. After lunch, spend the afternoon exploring the bazaar of Isfahan and learning more about traditional crafts in Iran. B,L,D

ISFAHAN

Wednesday, May 20

Admire some of the five bridges crossing the Zayendehrud River and wander through the city's fascinating Armenian quarter. In the afternoon view the Friday Mosque and the Palace of Forty Columns, a charming pavilion used to receive dignitaries and ambassadors. B,L,D

ISFAHAN to U.S.

Thursday, May 21

Depart Isfahan in the early morning, arriving back in the United States today.

STUDY LEADER

Stephen Kinzer is an award-winning foreign correspondent who has covered more than 50 countries on five continents. His articles and books have led the Washington Post to place him “among the best in popular foreign policy storytelling.” Kinzer spent more than 20 years working for The New York Times, most of it as a foreign correspondent. His foreign postings placed him at the center of historic events and, at times, in the line of fire. While covering world events, he has been shot at, jailed, beaten by police, tear-gassed and bombed from the air.

In 1996 Kinzer was named chief of the newly opened New York Times bureau in Istanbul, Turkey. He spent four years there, traveling widely in Iran, Turkey and in the new nations of Central Asia and the Caucasus. After completing this assignment, Kinzer published Crescent and Star: Turkey Between Two Worlds. He is the author of All The Shah’s Men: An American Coup and the Roots of Middle East Terror published in 2003. This book is based on documents about the coup in Iran (including some lengthy internal CIA reports) that have now been declassified. In 2010 his book Reset: Iran, Turkey, and America’s Future was published. His most recent book is The Brothers: John Foster Dulles, Allen Dulles, and Their Secret World War.

Before joining The New York Times, Kinzer was Latin America correspondent for the The Boston Globe. He is now a visiting fellow at the Watson Institute for International Studies at Brown University, where he teaches international relations. He contributes to The Guardian and The New York Review of Books, and writes a world affairs column for The Boston Globe.

Please note the State Department has had a Travel Warning for Iran since 1979. You can read this Travel Warning at http://travel.state.gov/travel/cis_pa_tw/tw/tw_920.html. Our tour operator has operated many trips to Iran, including several in 2013 & 2014.
