Yellowstone & Grand Teton National Parks

STORIES BY Ken Burns

Tauck On-tour Exclusive! Filmed narratives by Ken Burns and Dayton Duncan share personal stories of the passionate struggle to create America's – and the world's – first national park, Yellowstone, set aside "for the benefit and enjoyment of the people." Tauck takes you behind-the-scenes with commentary by the creators of "The National Parks: America's Best Idea."

$\begin{array}{l} \text{September 9} - \text{Arrive Salt Lake} \\ \text{Tour begins: 6:00 PM, The Grand America} \\ \end{array}$

Hotel. A transfer is included from Salt Lake City International Airport to The Grand America Hotel in the heart of Salt Lake City. Please join us this evening for a welcome cocktail reception and dinner with your fellow travelers. Meals D

Explore Yellowstone National Park and float down the Snake River aboard a raft in Grand Teton National Park

September 10 - Salt Lake City

Sightseeing includes the interesting downtown architecture, residential areas and This is the Place Monument – it was here that Brigham Young envisioned the building of this Mormon city. Travel to one of ten venues of the 2002 Winter

For more information or to make a reservation, please call 415-597-6720 or e-mail travel@commonwealthclub.org

Olympics for a tour; the rest of the afternoon is free to explore Salt Lake City on your own. Learn all about the amazing ecology and diversity of life within the Great Salt Lake Basin during a fascinating lecture this evening. Meals B

September 11 - Grand Teton NP

Travel north along the edge of the Great Salt Lake into Idaho, where you'll be treated to lunch during a visit to the National Oregon / California Trail Center; an interactive presentation simulates an actual wagon train experience of the 1850s. Continue on into Wyoming, the soul of the rugged West, boasting spectacular mountains, silver streams, oil wells, grasslands, cowboys and warm, hospitable local characters. Enjoy a brief visit in the town of Jackson before arriving in Grand Teton National Park for two nights at the Jackson Lake Lodge. Meals BLD

September 12 - River Rafting

Take a scenic ten-mile float trip on the Snake River* this morning as it meanders through stunning alpine scenery; be on the lookout for moose, elk, deer, beaver and many species of birds, including the bald eagle, who all make their homes in this natural habitat. Spend the remainder of the day exploring on your own or join us for a special volunteer service project with park experts, made possible by our operator's long-standing relationship with – and support of – the national parks. Meals B

September 13 - Yellowstone NP

Depart Grand Teton National Park this morning; view sparkling Jenny Lake and arrive midday in Yellowstone National Park, established in 1872 as the United States' first national park. Your accommodations are ideally located at the Old Faithful Inn, just steps from the park's most famous feature, Old Faithful Geyser. Overnight stays at The Ranch at UCross and exploration of Yellowstone are highlights of the trip

Approximately every 90 minutes, the geyser lives up to its name by shooting a plume of steam skyward. Explore the Upper Geyser Basin and learn more about Old Faithful on a guided excursion this afternoon. Tonight's dinner is at your leisure at your hotel. Meals BLD

September 14 - Geologic Gems

With 10,000 hot springs, thundering waterfalls, two-thirds of all geysers in the world and endless forests, Yellowstone inspires awe. Explore its geologic wonders today; follow the Firehole River to the Fountain Paint Pot, which is one of many bubbling, colorful mud pots throughout the park. View the spectacular Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone, carved by the churning waters of the Yellowstone River. Spend tonight along the tranquil shores of Yellowstone Lake at your historic hotel. Meals BD

September 15 - Cody

A journey along winding mountain roads leads from Yellowstone National Park to the town of Cody, founded by frontiersman Buffalo Bill Cody in 1896. Explore the Buffalo Bill Historical Center, which includes the Whitney Gallery of Western Art, the Draper Museum of Natural History and the Plains Indian Museum. Attend the Dan Miller Cowboy Music Revue tonight. Meals BD

September 16 - Wyoming Ranch

Experience the scenic splendors of the Bighorn Mountains as you traverse canyons blanketed with grassland and seasonal flowers. Enjoy a western ranch experience, including a horseback ride*, at The Ranch at Ucross. Meals BLD

Dear Club Member:

The United States has a national parks system like no other country, drawing travelers from around the world awed by our monuments to natural beauty. I am pleased to invite you to explore two of our nation's most magnificent national parks, Yellowstone and Grand Teton, September 9-18, on a 10-day adventure that includes virtually every travel expense.

Come discover the pioneering spirit of the West from Salt Lake City, Utah, to Rapid City, South Dakota. Explore Yellowstone, the world's first national park, and see bubbling mud pots, colorful mineral pools, shooting geysers, endless forests and thundering waterfalls. Marvel at views of the glorious peaks of the grand Tetons and spot moose, elk, and bald eagles during our scenic float trip on the Snake River.

Learn about Old West history in Cody, pioneer life at the Trail Museum in Idaho, and the ecology of the Great Salt Lake Basin in Salt Lake City. Journey to the Black Hills and the masterful carvings of our presidents' faces at Mount Rushmore. For those that are interested, an opportunity to take part in a volunteer project with park experts in Grand Teton National Park is offered. Come celebrate what filmmaker Ken Burns calls "America's Best Idea."

This is a great time to experience the national parks, without the crowds of summer. Join us!

Sincerely,

Kustine Memeth

Kristina Nemeth Director of Travel
