Commonwealth Club Travel

Dear Traveler:

Experience this special voyage between two great cultural capitals, visiting a unique combination of Southern Europe's ports. Specialist guides and the on board lecturers will bring to life the dynamic history of rivaling civilizations and the legacy of some of the world's greatest art and architecture.

Cruise from Rome to Barcelona visiting five UNESCO World Heritage sites. Discover Carcassonne's French medieval fortifications; the Italian picture-postcard, cliffside villages of the Cinque Terre; the Renaissance treasures of Florence or the historic Tuscan monuments of Lucca and Pisa. Admire the natural beauty of Sardinia's dazzling Costa Smeralda; Nice's mélange of influences—the Savoy, Habsburgs and Romanovs; the principality of Monaco, the epitome of Riviera chic; Cannes, the centerpiece of the Côte d'Azur; and Corsica's alluring port of Bonifacio.

We are co-sponsoring this chartered departure with other educational organizations, such as the Smithsonian Institution, Columbia University and Harvard University. Space is very limited, so I encourage you to book now. Come see why these splendid coastlines of the French and Italian rivieras became a favorite retreat for artists, writers, and nobility. The Ture of Southern Europe's Islands and Rivas

Crossroads of Civilizations

The turquoise waters and emerald coasts of the French and Italian rivas have long enticed the Greeks, Etruscans, Phoenicians, Romans and Germanic peoples. The beau monde began flocking to the seaside towns as de rigor of the 19th-century "Grand Tour" to rejuvenate in the salubrious climate. The rise of Italian nobility—particularly the Savoy, Italy's ruling family from 1861 to 1946, and the Grimaldis, the lineage of the current Prince of Monaco—further influenced the development of these gems nestled between the Alps and the sea. The Côte d'Azur's radiant quality of light captivated Pablo Picasso, Henri Matisse and Marc Chagall, distinctly influencing each artist's use of brilliant colors, while the glamour of the region attracted great writers like Ernest Hemingway and F. Scott Fitzgerald.
